W. S. FEATHERSTON.

THOMAS W. HARRIS.

OFFICE OF

Featherston & Harris

Attorneys-at-Law,

Practice in all the Courts in North Miss., the Federal Court at Oxford, and the Supreme Court at Jackson.

Holly Springs. Miss., Jan. 1st, 1878.

Dear Sir:--I am requested by Hon. J. F. H. Claiborne to prepare a narrative of my Campaigns for his History of Mississippi; I would be glad to have from you, a full statement, touching the organization of your Regiment, or any other in my Command, during the late war. I want, particularly, a list of the officers, field and Company, of each Regiment in my Command; also a list of the killed and wounded officers in each battle, and the number of privates killed and wounded in each engagement.

I want this information at as early a day as possible. One volume of Col. Claiborne's work is now ready for the Press. Hoping to hear from you at an early day, I am very truly your friend,

W. S. Featherston.
